San Vicenti, Croatia July 22-25

Dance and Non - Verbal Theatre Festival San Vincenti will be dancing again, its 17th edition will be held from July 22nd to 25th!

During these 4 days of we will present Croatian and international artists from several European countries with their recent works. Within the collaboration with international dance platform Aerowaves which promotes new and fresh choreographers in Europe, for the first time in Croatia we will present Andreas Constantinou with TheWOMANhouse, Anna Réti and Ricardo Machado with their work POINT OF YOU.

As part of the main programme we will present a work of a renowned Spanish dancer Lali Ayguade with her choreography Kokoro. We are also happy to present again Spanish collective Señor Serrano (awarded with Silver Lion 2015 from the Venice bienalle) with their multimedia piece A HOUSE IN ASIA.

Apart from the main programme in the Grimani Castle and other open air locations around the city of San Vincenti, we offer workshops for professional dancers in Mediterranean dance centre, a presentation on the Creative Europe - Culture programme etc.

Dance and Non-Verbal Theatre Festival San Vincenti is a unique cultural event, organized by Zagreb Dance Company, which has with its long tradition proved itself as the favorite gathering spot of dance experts and dance lovers who follow the festival's international program composed of contemporary dance productions, physical theater, mime, circus performances, street art and educational seminars and workshops. Founded in the year of 2000., the Festival has so far presented more than 150 dance and theatre companies from Croatia and abroad, with more than 190 productions; it has established good cooperation with the local community; it has encouraged the opening of Svetvinčenat Tourist Board and the opening of the Art Center, in which it implements the programming of the Mediterranean Dance Centre; it has an excellent attendance rate and it has become an unavoidable part of the cultural offer in the region and in Croatia in general.
